

Xemio 760 BT new upgrade tool use methods

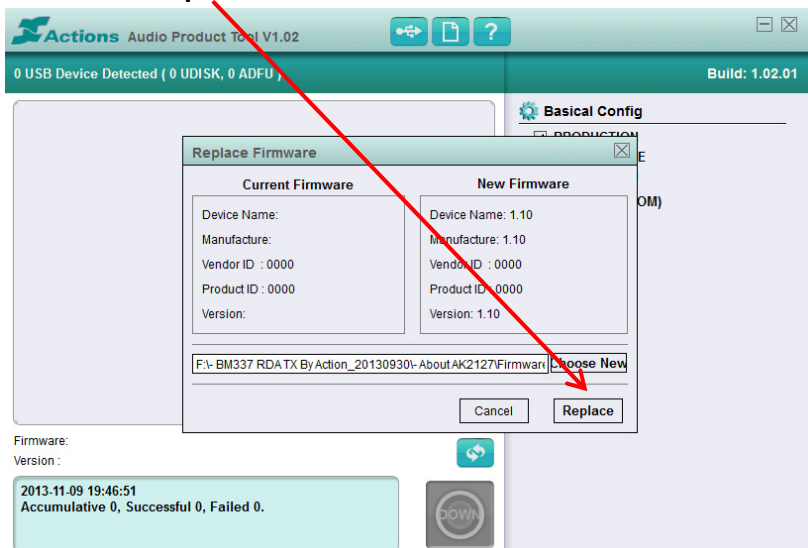

- After the installation is done by your computer.
- Open the upgrade tool by clicks the Windows “Start” Menu > All Program > Audio Product Tool 1.02 > Audio Product tool, then the application interface appear as follow;

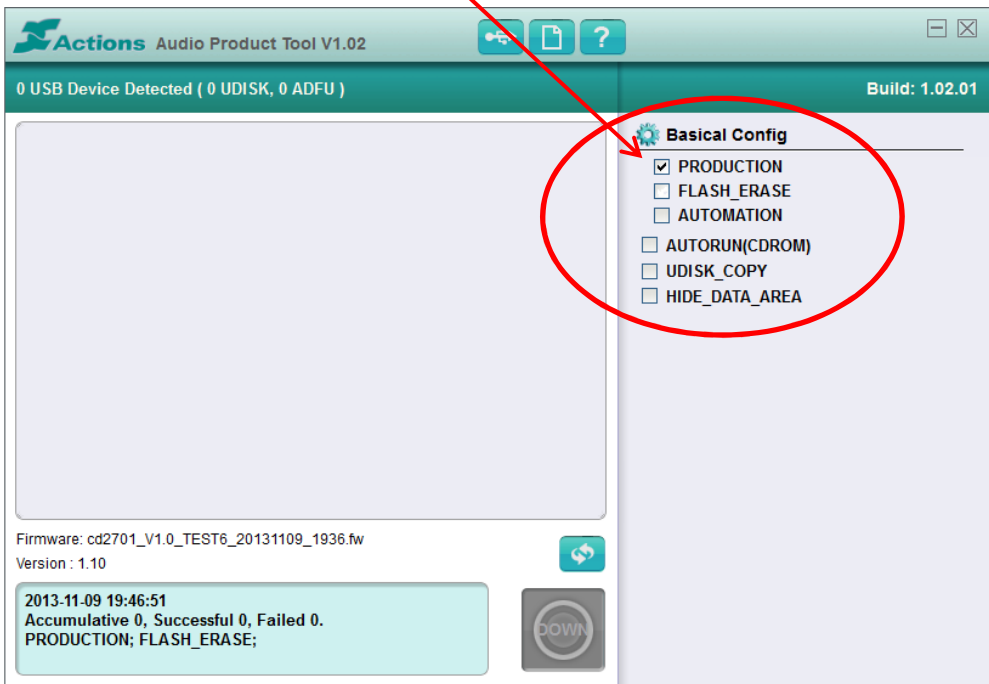

- Then locate the new firmware by click “Open” and “select” the firmware name if more then one.

- Once firmware file is selected, the import dialog box appears for seconds then “Replace Firmware” dialog box appear to confirm.
- Click “Replace” to confirm.

- After Firmware is replaced, a “Control & Settings” interface appears to use.
- Make sure the item “Production” box is tick only, if not un-tick other boxes before to start the upgrade process.

- After setting up is completed, then you can now to connect the computer with Xemio 760 BT by USB cable.
- Once connected the necessary driver will install automatically. Wait for seconds; you will see the “Down” icon will colored light blue from grey color. This means, it is ready for upgrade.
- Then, click the “Down” icon to start the upgrade and the status is running....

- After the upgrade is completed, it should show “Successful” in status bar and also the upgrade information is show in the information window. Otherwise, it may fail or others.

- Disconnect the Xemio 760 BT with the computer when it is done....
- Then reset the Xemio 760 BT by built-in reset switch inside the earphone jack hole.